

WONDERLAKE

OCCIDENTAL

Head in the cloud
Rain on the slacker sound Soothe guitars
Hitting the ground
striking up
long forgotten strains Getting cheap thrills
of that Buick
in the warm dull road in the deep seat
revving up...revving up cooled-off driver doll
and this music
bangs your blank head
turn it down

Who's changing rhythm
by the sunset fire
street bugle's wither birdie takes you higher will it be for your compliance.
Cool spinning ribbons
In the world 's damm silence Quivering figures
put the wheels on fire
how could you leave
and still deny it
